Hilton Istanbul Bosphorus holds a special place in hospitality history as one of Hilton's earliest international hotels. Today, it continues to welcome guests with warm Turkish hospitality and world-class service — all while undergoing modern renovations that enhance every stay.

Choose from a wide variety of accommodations, each featuring private balconies and elegant interiors. Many rooms offer breathtaking views of the Bosphorus or the garden, while suites add generous living space, separate seating areas, and luxurious touches designed for comfort and relaxation.

Savor memorable meals at the hotel's exceptional dining venues — from the panoramic Bosphorus Terrace Restaurant to authentic international flavors at Dragon and casual poolside bites. Whether it's breakfast with a view or a sophisticated dinner under the stars, every dining experience reflects Hilton's culinary excellence.

With extensive meeting and event spaces, Hilton Istanbul Bosphorus is ideal for conferences, social celebrations, weddings and business gatherings — all supported by expert planning and elegant venues that accommodate up to thousands of guests.

Nestled in Istanbul's vibrant Harbiye district and surrounded by magnificent gardens, the hotel places you within easy reach of cultural landmarks, shopping districts and entertainment venues — with effortless access to transportation throughout the city.
